

PARTNER APPOINTMENTS

Rawlinson & Hunter Singapore announces the promotion of Claire Corden and Jill Carpenter to partner, with effect from 1 January 2019.

Claire has been with the Firm five years and is an accounting and Singapore tax specialist chartered accountant. Claire has been managing the Singapore accounting and tax team for the past few years. Renowned for her superb management, as well as her deep, practical knowledge of Singapore accounting and tax compliance, Claire contributes key technical expertise to the Firm's accounting and tax team.

Jill has headed the Trust team in Singapore for two years and has a breadth of experience in dealing with UHNW trust clients over multiple jurisdictions. Jill has long recognised that what drives the private client business is excellent customer service and maintaining a firm commitment to regulatory and legislative compliance across the firm. Jill is an active member of Society of Trust and Estate Practitioners, is a member of the Singapore Trustees Association Compliance Committee, and is integral member of our award winning* Trust team.

Rawlinson & Hunter Singapore's Founder and Managing Partner, Peter Milnes, said, "Our new partners, Claire Corden and Jill Carpenter, bring excellent technical and client relationship skills to the Firm. They have been integral to the organisation's growth over the years in Singapore, and their promotion to partner is well deserved and shows our commitment to, and continued growth in Singapore. I look forward to working with my new partners in delivering exemplary service to our clients over the coming decades."

The firm was awarded WealthBriefingAsia Awards 2018 Most Promising New Entrant*
